

FIRE AND WATER DAMAGE A HOME

Residence of Mrs. Anna Kelly on Twentieth Street in Almost Destroyed.

HARD WORK FOR THE FIREMEN

Entire Rear of the Building Aflame Before It Was Seen—Fanned by a Still Breeze.

Flames of unknown origin completely destroyed the rear and attic of the home of Mrs. Anna Kelly, 1736 Seventeenth street, this morning, causing a loss of fully $5,000. The fire was discovered by William Quinn, agent for the Red Star Trust company, who was passing at the time. He went to the front door and knocked, and when Mrs. Kelly responded he advised her to leave the building at once. Mrs. Kelly was much surprised and at first thought some sort of joke was being attempted. At the time the entire rear end of the roof was ablaze.

The alarm was sounded at 10:35, and by the time the firemen, who responded promptly, had laid several lines of hose the roof was entirely ablaze. After two hours of hard work the firemen succeeded in extinguishing the flames and saved the structure. All of the rooms on the second floor were damaged by water, the plaster falling from the walls. Water also reached the first floor. The figures on the total damage were further increased by the destruction of a quantity of furniture in the attic. This furniture formerly belonged to Mrs. Kelly's mother, and contained some family relics. Some of the rooms in the home had been repapered and repainted.

Thought Villa Afire.

The cause of the fire could not be determined, but is supposed to have been from defective wiring. For a time it looked as if the home was doomed, the flames being fanned by a north wind. Many residents in the lower town section thought the Villa de Chantal was on fire, and numerous calls were made for the fire department.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster found and ignored while it acted. You can now get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE does it. It is a clean, pure ointment, made with oil of mustard, is so sensibly prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Just imagine MUSTEROLE in which the mustard is gently, but so quickly it brings relief—how specifically the pain disappears.

And there is nothing like MUSTEROLE for the throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, lumbago, lameness, pains and aches of back, joints, sprains, sore muscles, rheumatism, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (in other words pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.00. Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Mustard Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

EARTHLY LABORS FOR HER ENDED

Mrs. E. G. Pearce Summoned After Having Been Bedfast for Period of Nine Weeks.

LIVED IN THE CITY SINCE 1893

Native of Ireland, 79 Years of Age and Was Reared and Educated in New York.

A singularly beautiful life came to a close this afternoon, when Mrs. E. G. Pearce passed away at 1:40 at her home 729 Nineteenth street. Since Easter her condition had been critical and the end was not unanticipated. Death was due to complications.

For several years Mrs. Pearce had been failing in health. Last October a turn for the worse occurred. Nine weeks ago she was taken to her bed and gradually her strength failed and it was seen that her demise was but a question of time.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Esther Ewing, was born in County Antrim, near Belfast, Ireland, Feb. 24, 1836, being the daughter of Leonard and Mattie Ewing. At the age of 9 she came to America with her parents and located at New York city, where she received her early education and grew to womanhood.

Here Since 1895.
She came to Illinois at the age of 21 years, the family locating at Ottumwa. On Aug. 6, 1860, she was united in marriage to Dr. E. G. Pearce, the ceremony being performed at Pontiac. In the fall of 1895 the couple came to Rock Island and this has been the family home ever since.

Mrs. Pearce was converted at the age of 13 and joined the Methodist church while living in New York city. Throughout her life, she devotedly served that denomination and never lost an opportunity to advance its interests. She proved a loyal and loving helpmate to Dr. Pearce in his ministerial work and by her tactfulness, sympathy and gentleness held the love and esteem of Rock Island residents in a remarkable degree. During her illness she had no complaint to make but kept her characteristic good cheer. She was full of gratitude and thankfulness for the blessings which had been hers and refused to see the dark side of life's experiences.

Besides the husband, Dr. Pearce, there survive five children: Miss Eva C. Pearce, Dr. R. M. Pearce, Mrs. E. H. Stapp and R. C. Pearce, all of this city; and Mrs. Charles T. Chandler, Chicago, and five grandchildren. Five children have passed away. One sister, Mrs. John Lundy, who lives in Oklahoma, and a brother, N. R. Ewing, who resides in Colorado, are also living.
